

Health-Care Advice by telephone or on the Internet. 24 hours a day.

Do you need advice about health-care? The telephone number 1177 will connect you to "Sjukvårdsrådgivningen 1177".

Here you can obtain medical advice, answers about whether there is anything you can do yourself to help the problem, and help to find your way around the health-care system in Sweden.

Your call will be answered by experienced and specially trained telephone nurses from the Kronoberg County Administration. You pay the same rate for the call as for any other telephone call. You can also visit the website www.1177.se. Here you will find thousands of articles about illnesses, injuries, symptoms, investigations and treatments. You can also send in questions, anonymously, or search for information in our database of answers.

Sjukvårdsrådgivningen is available by telephone and on the Internet to give you health-care advice at any time of day or night, every day of the year. The service is provided by the health-care system in Kronoberg County.
